The Parenting Challenge

The Parenting Challenge is designed to meet the needs of parents in the workplace and community. The class will address issues in effective prevention of substance abuse, delinquent behavior, and child abuse/neglect behaviors. The goals of the program are to: 1) enrich family relationships, 2) reduce substance abuse and its related problems among the family, and 3) promote healthy environments that build resistance to social and personal dysfunction. Contact DrugFree Idaho at 570-6404 for more information. Throughout the school year, DrugFree Idaho offers classes to parents and their students in 5th and 6th grade. General information about drug abuse, signs and symptoms, current trends, and prevention tips are presented by School Resource Officers and School Counselors. Contact school counselor for a schedule.

WHAT ARE PARENTING TOOLS?

Parenting Tools offer practical techniques and new skills for raising healthy youth. The classes are for anyone who is interested in helping our youth develop communication, responsibility, empathy, cooperation, honesty, integrity, and dependable strengths.

Several of our school sites will be offering additional classes and programs for parents throughout the year. Watch for more information in your child's school newsletters and parent education flyers.

HEALTHY COMMUNITY*HEALTHY YOUTH

"Why do some kids grow up with ease, while others struggle? Many factors influence why some young people have success in life and why others have a harder time. The SEARCH Institute has identified 40 concrete, positive experiences and qualities-developmental assets-that help young people make wise decisions, choose positive paths, and grow up competent, caring and responsible."
...SEARCH Institute

The assets that families have the most influence and control over include:

- Family Support
- Positive Family Communication
- Parent Involvement in Schools

The Meridian School District Parent Education Program offers many classes during the year that support parents, families and child care providers, as well as supply the tools needed to raise healthy, responsible and caring kids.
